

8th of March 2019

Announcing the 5th edition of the international FOODPHOTO FESTIVAL, celebrated in Vejle, Denmark from the 4th until the 7th of June 2019.

Complete program of cutting-edge conferences, workshops, portfolio reviews, shared experience sessions and pechakucha presentations released!

FOODPHOTO FESTIVAL is a biennial event that brings together photography professionals from all over the world giving plenty of opportunities to meet fellow professionals, exchange knowledge and learn about the art of food photography, while exhibiting selected works to the general public.

This international event will continue in 2019 in the city of Vejle from 4th - 7th of June. Attendees can participate in inspiring conferences, hands-on workshops, pechakucha presentations, portfolio reviews, shared experience sessions and panel discussions.

The highlight of the festival will be the "FOODPHOTO on Stage" award ceremony on Friday night, the 7th of June. During the event the nominated works of the festival will be shown in a screening and the winners of the FOODPHOTO and FOODFEATURE AWARD chosen by the festival jury will be announced. The last edition brought together professionals from 30 countries, including USA, Russia, Chile, South Africa, Cuba, India, Israel, Guatemala and the entire European community.

FOODPHOTO FESTIVAL Program

IMPRESSIONS OF FOODPHOTO FESTIVAL 2017 VEJLE

The FOODPHOTO FESTIVAL program will contain, among others, workshops on "Fundamentals of daylight food photography" by the Swiss, New York based, Adrian Mueller, who has an amazing track record of "special interest" cookbooks and "Bringing Liquids Alive" by the Germans Nico van Dieck and Mathea van Kann, leading innovators in the world of liquid styling.

During the conferences well-known experts will talk about various trending topics. Geoff Binns-Calvey, rigger and special effects designer from the U.S., will give insights into his special techniques and the Australian photographer Petrina Tinslay will speak about "Planning a Cook Book".

Photographers and stylists will have the opportunity to meet with art directors, publishers, art buyers and editors from different countries to discuss their work during portfolio reviews.

FOODPHOTO ART Exhibitions

The FOODPHOTO ART EXHIBITION will be open for the general public from 8th of June to the 30th of June in a beautiful old theater building in the center of Vejle Denmark and is free of charge. It will show more than 600 photographs and photo projections of the current best food photographers of the world, selected by curator Günter Beer.

About FOODPHOTO FESTIVAL

FOODPHOTO FESTIVAL is an initiative of the German Food Photographer Günter Beer. Together with Event Producer Manon Straver and a team of enthusiastic collaborators the festival was created in 2010. The worldwide unique event brings together professionals from all over the world to exchange and learn about the art of Food Photography and honour the best photographers of the year with the FOODPHOTO and FOODFEATURE award. The biennial took already place in the cities of Tarragona (Spain) and Vejle (Denmark) and will be celebrated for the 5th time in June 2019.

For more information:

Visit www.foodphotofestival.com or write us on info@foodphotofestival.com

Manon Straver (+34 651513300)